Statement

Voices inside our heads are constantly speaking to us And this inevitable question, which one am I, which one is me An infinite number of "me"s are born throughout our lives. We nurture them, consume them, and unexpectedly lose some of them. But the voices inside us and our accompanying colors do not turn off. It's impossible to live without them On the path to find ourselves, we have to pass through turmoil, empathize with ourselves, and stay alive

Maybe somewhere we could move past this other one and make the same color and the same voice

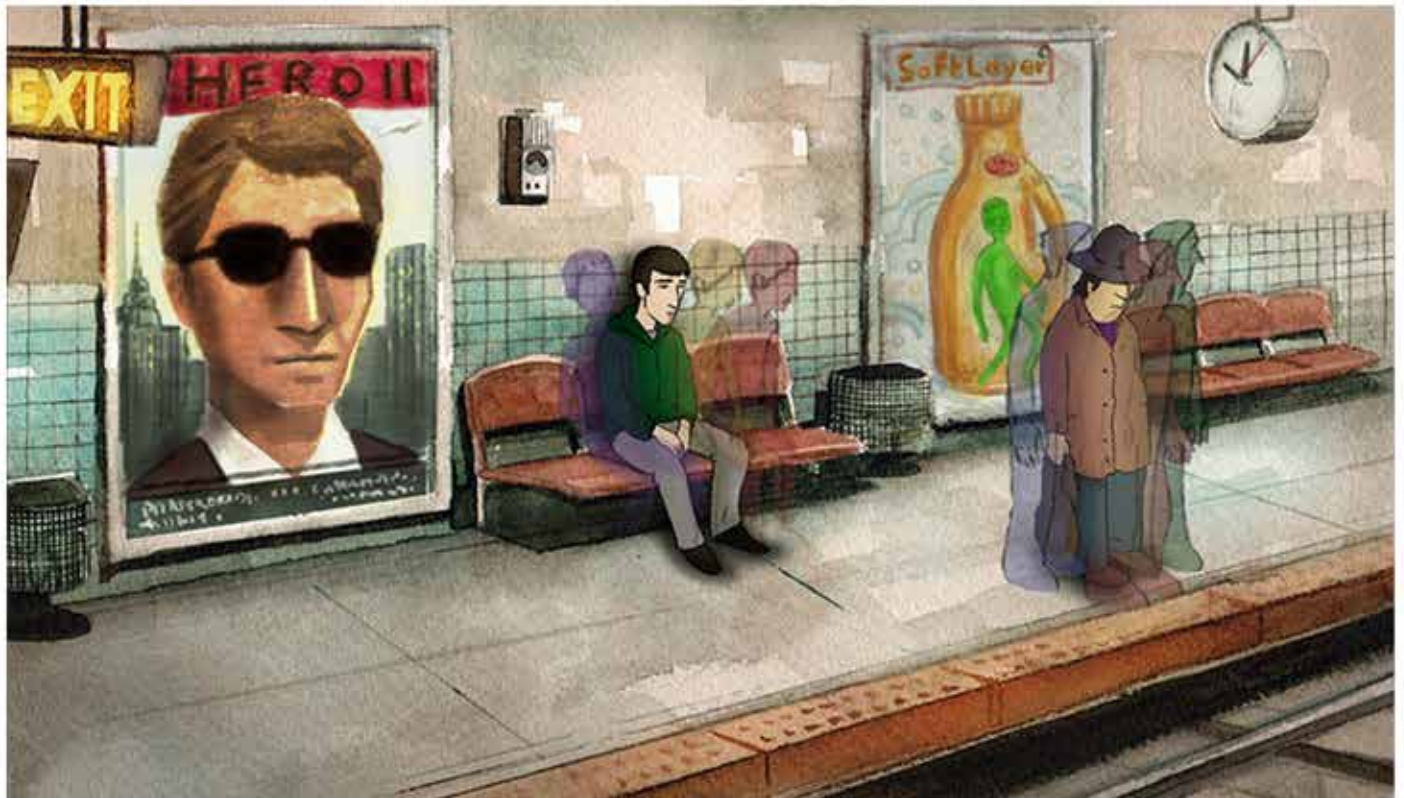

در این بعضی چیزها
 از این جا به نین دل میبرد
 به این زیادش بدنه است اما
 در این دستان و قرار داد می بلانند
 در این نین تبدیل به بلا می باشد
 به این وضع نین او حتی می خواند
 نین نین در دانه این همین نین نین
 جرات در نین و نین به خود خودش با خودش
 چه طلب در نین است هر زین نین
 نین نین نین نین

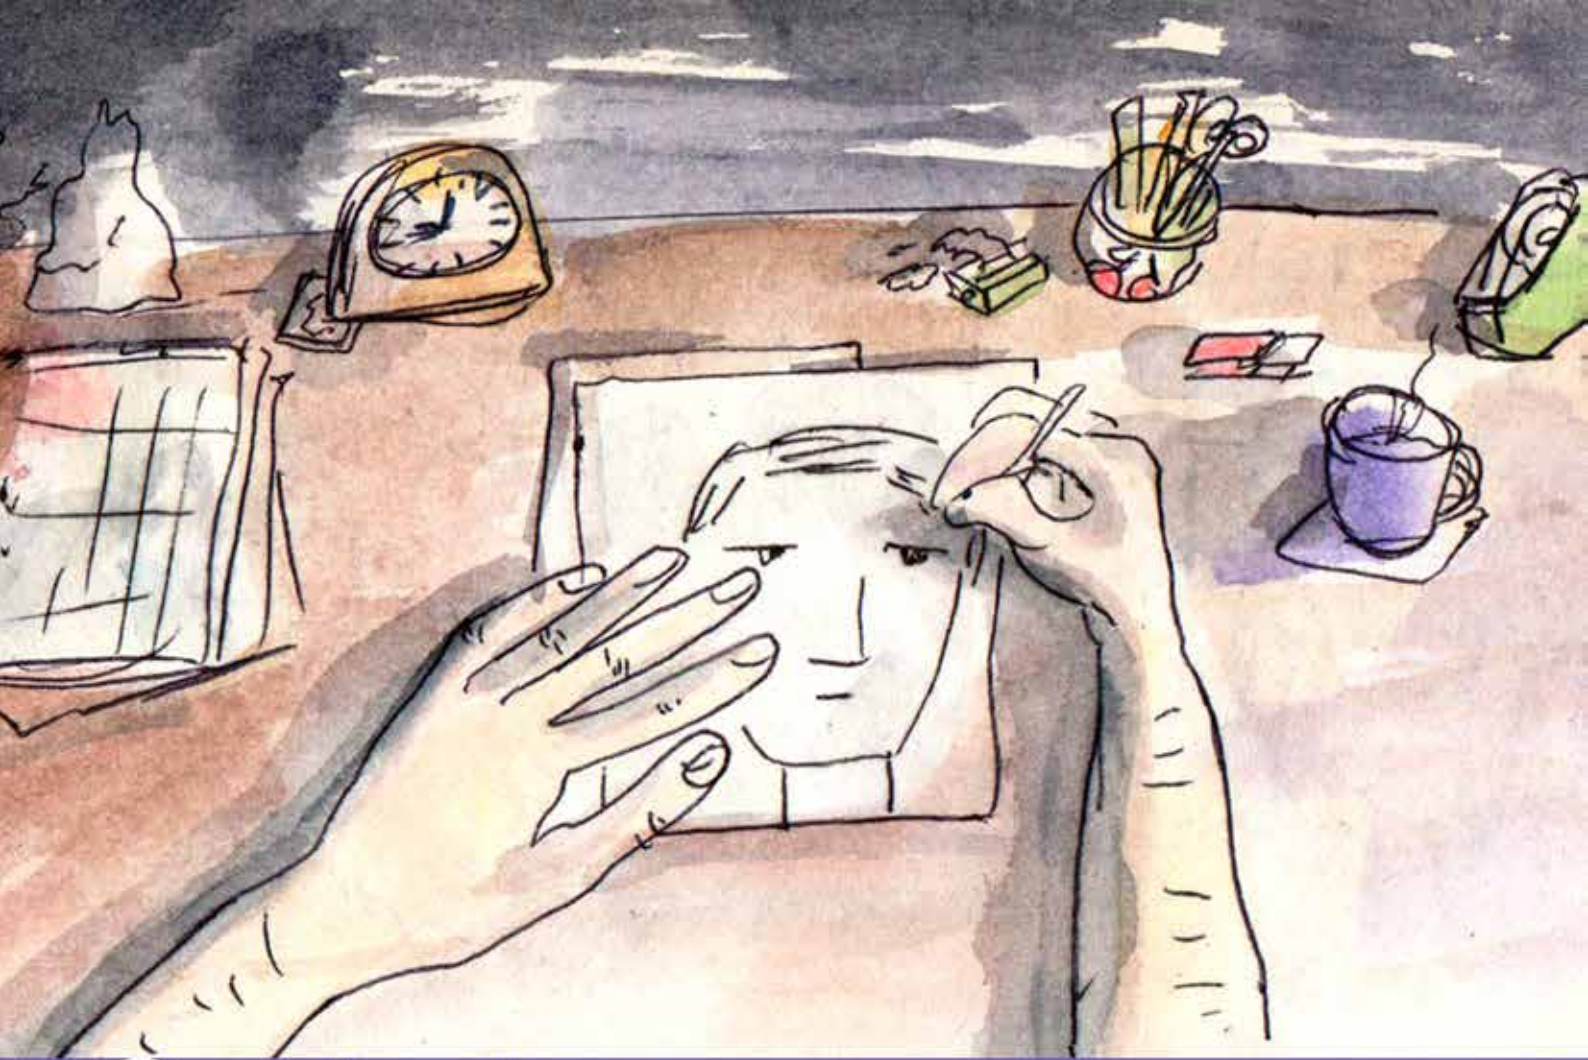

کیفیت اصل سگالکت و در کار نین دان کردن لایه
 نین نین نین
